The Yanks must encounter Detroit and Cleveland this week, and Detroit seems at last to be starting to play Ball. It would be the Yank luck to strike Detroit just as the team settles down to real playing, and the Yanks seem to me to have better chances of heating Cleveland than they have De-

There are teams like that; Cleveland is a better club than is Detroit, yet Detroit's style of play is like that of the Yanks themselves, and there is battering power all down the line, power which is terrible when the pitching wavers.

Thus far Huggins has done marvel with his pitching staff, but it is shor handed, and more so since he was

It seems to me certain that the Cub slugging is bound to stop, and that the bad legs on the team will start to slow it up before very long. Also, Killifer must go to the army. In other words, it behooves Mitchell to make hay while the sun shines and he seems intent upon filling the mow on the present trip. T seems to me certain that the Cub

Running on the outside of the track most of the way he lost all chance to lower the record of 47 4-5s, established by Maxey Long in September, 1900.

The champion passed his nearest competitor in the first stretch, and from then on to the last 100 yards his stride was constantly impaired from having to dodge in and out of the wabbling field. Shea and young Berthoid Schwartz of the Dickinson High School staged a pretty sprint during the last few yards, and it was enly the premier's class that enabled him to breast the tape a few inches in the lead.

Frank Shea has always been a hard worker. He had to work at night as telegrapher for the Pennsylvania Railroad in order to defray the expenses of his course at the University of Pittsburgh. He is the type of athlete which carries a strong personal appeal. His integrity, together with a natural thirst for book learning and his prowess on the track, finally caused his election to President of his class. dent of his class,

Shea is quiet, unassuming and almost painfully modest. Nevertheless, he is very attentive and courieous whenever he is addressed. While his mark of 502-5s, on Saturday was considerably lower than the world's record. Shea's performance was a revelation to the splendid gallery that witnessed the annual games of the N. Y. A. C. It is always a treat to see a real champion in action.
